

Our Collection Book and eBook Collection

The library holds print and electronic books reflecting the research and instructional needs of students and faculty.

English as a Second Language (ESL) Collection

The collection includes books that aim to develop the listening, speaking, reading, and writing skills of non-native English speakers.

Heritage Collection

A substantial part of the Heritage collection is the personal collection of Leslie Hardinge, first president of the Adventist University of Asia.

Periodical Collection

The collection is the home for old and current issues of print journal subscriptions of the library. It includes a wide range of academic and professional journals.

Special Collection

Graduate level and popular books written in Chinese, Korean, Spanish, and other foreign languages are included in this collection.

Instructional Media and Resource Collection

The Instructional Media Resource Center (IMRC) has a growing number of multimedia titles and is continuously updating its collection.

Online Databases

The library subscribes to three powerful aggregators such as EBSCO, ProQuest and JSTOR providing access to a vast array of electronic resources.

Asian Studies Collection

An expanding specialized collection which aimed at becoming the premier resource center of Asian Studies for the Adventist community.

Adventist Asia (CARA)

Promotes documentary research in the areas of history, theology and mission of the Seventh-day Adventist Church in Asia.
